STORE FOR BARGAINS!

The Methodist Sunday school gave their Easter entertainment Sunday evening. The program consisted of singing, recitations, responsive reading, and short talks by Dr. Keeling and Rev. C. H. Gilmore. The excellence of the entertainment is due in a great measure to Miss Lillian Minick, who trained the children. The thanks of the Sunday school are extended to Miss Lillian and also to Miss May Gaither, who was organist and whose excellent playing added much to the enjoyment of the entertainment. A good crowd was present and the attention was good.

The big blanket ballot will be used no more in this state. Gov. Poynter has signed the new ballot law which practically restores the old form of ballot adopted eight years ago. The candidates can have their names on the ticket but once, but if nominated by more than one party may have the names of all such parties follow his name. The candidates will not get on the ticket in alphabetical order, as was the case on the old ballot, but will be placed according to the relative strength of the parties in each county. The party casting the largest number of votes for the state ticket at the last election will be entitled to the first place on the ticket. In presidential elections the electors will be grouped so that those representing any particular party may all be voted for by making a single cross mark. In all other cases a cross must be made after each name on the ticket, the same as was the case in the old ballot.
